DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-27 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ikeda (U.S. Patent No. 6,631,094).

Regarding claim 1, Ikeda discloses, in FIG. 1, a memory array (22) comprising a plurality of memory cells, a memory control circuit (all excluding 22) operable to generate one or more control signals (rdpz, wrpz) for initiation of memory operations associated with the memory array, the control circuit comprising a cycle ready circuit (25) operable to generate a cycle ready strobe signal (ealz) for initiating a next memory operation after an initial memory operation based on identification of a completion of the initial memory operation (rasz). (See column 5, lines 1-12, 38-58)

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-12 are allowed.
5. Claims 14-27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art made of record and considered pertinent to the applicant's disclosure does not teach or suggest the claimed limitations. Ikeda, Hamamoto et al., taken individually or in combination, do not teach the claimed invention having the following limitations, in combination with the remaining claimed limitations:

wherein the cycle ready circuit is operable to generate a control signal for initiation of a second memory operation a predetermined period of time after detection of completion of a first memory operation, wherein the predetermined period of time corresponds to an amount of time needed for a true and complement bit line associated with a memory cell associated with the second memory operation to substantially equalize and reach a predetermined voltage level (as in claim 1); or wherein the cycle ready circuit is operable to generate the cycle ready strobe signal to initiate the next memory operation a predetermined period of time after completion of the initial memory operation is identified, wherein the predetermined period of time is sufficient to ensure that a true and complement bit line associated with a selected memory cell in the memory array have substantially equalized and reached a predetermined value (as in claim 14).
